Beware of paparazzi—'cause when you sport these personalized accessories, you'll be the talk of the town:

A. TEE-RIFIC SCARF Want to spruce up a run-of-the-mill jersey scarf? Try ironing on sequin designs or letter transfers. No need to thank us—it's the fleur-de-least we can do.

B. PARLEZ-VOUS CROCHET? A crocheted jewelry scarf is a perfect accessory for the hotter months. We added a rhinestone embellishment to the middle and placed a self-adhesive pin back (from the Jewelry Department) onto the back. Loop the scarf through the pin—the beads should stop the flower from sliding around.

C. CHARMED, I'M SURE Try a scarf charm like this one (we just threaded the scarf through it!) to give a no-frills scarf a traipsing-through-Paris air.

D. EMBELLISHED BLOSSOM No blossom is complete without some glimmer...so we adhered a crystal embellishment in the center. Then we adhered the flower to a white jersey scarf.

CHARMING & CHIC

It's a designer closet . . . on a dime. Now you can easily add focal piece embellishments to those need-a-lift tanks and tees. And before long, you'll have a closet stocked with one-off outfit choices! We chose mostly solid scarves—and embellishments in complementing colors—to create go-with-everything pieces. Tip: Don't be a one-scarf wonder—experiment with all sorts of ways to tie 'em up!

► Hot Hat Here's an easy pick-me-up for a plain Jane fedora: a simple elastic headband and a glitzy rhinestone buckle. Open the headband—just untie the knot—slide on the buckle, and stitch or tie the headband closed again. Then slide it onto your favorite hat!

Tip-Top Style

Don't let your hat styles capsize. Just grab some ready-to-go adornments (they're mix-and-matchable!), and you can be rarin' for the runway or set for soccer practice—all with a few decked-out hats.

◀ Corsage Collage

Make a dazzling collage-style appliqué with fabric rosettes and sparkly accessories—we used beaded, rhinestone and acrylic gem embellishments for ours. Simply glue your pretties to a piece of felt and then stitch or pin the arrangement to a hat, shirt or sweater.

Rock & Pearl We love the combo here: The punk rock-inspired rhinestone elastic dons a vintage-y trio of silk floral embellishments. And it's as easy as 1, 2, 3, look-at-me! Just adhere flowers as desired. Tip: Stay away from heavy embellishments—this type of headband may not support them.

Fluffed-Up Muffs These crocheted head wraps will keep you cozy, warm and snow bunny chic. All you need is a satin rosette and a snowflake rhinestone! We suggest attaching it to the headband with a self-adhesive pin back.

All in a Row It couldn't get any easier than this lined-up lovely. The piece comes with felt loops on the underside—all you need to do is slip your own skinny headband through 'em. Tip: Try the headbands with woven covers—they won't slip around under the felt!
