RUFFLE ME LOVELY

This frilly-fun ensemble has all the glamour of a petticoat and half the hassle. We made it using McCall's Pattern #6497 and then added black rosettes and trim. To highlight layers on the pant leg, stack color-coordinating prints like these. Then dance a dainty minuet (or a jig—whatever fluffs your ruffles).

PINT-SIZED PAIR

One for you, and one for puppy, too! This sweet combo (Simplicity Pattern #1793) comes with a complete mini-me pattern for your sweetheart's favorite play pal. And since the big girl pattern features a flowy dress-and-pant set, she'll be free to leap and twirl her way through the day.

SUPERSTAR SPOTTED

Dress your diva in this two-piece knockout, and it's look out world! It's our own funky fabric creation—thanks to McCall's Pattern #6688. And it's sweet. It's sassy. It's even pom-pom-adorned! (That's right... check out that red and green trim.)

All it needs is a pair of paparazzi-proof shades and a show-stopping smile to boot.

ROSY POSEY

Our all-purpose trims—like the lace ruffles and pink rosettes pictured here—are the quicker spiffier-uppers for any outfit.

Pink shorts: McCall's Pattern #5419 and a double-sided bow, stitched on (we added trim to the tank using a hand-drawn heart pattern). Patchwork dress: McCall's Pattern #6497.

CHIC IN PARIS

"Oui, oui," she'll say while sipping her tea... 'cause this Eiffel-esque fabric will give her an excuse to play dress-up any day. We used McCall's Pattern #6686 and added some chiffon trim instead of ruffles—a great timesaver! Accent the outfit with a bow à la mode or headband like the one you see here. (We carry pre-made rosettes!)

BOLD BOMBSHELLS

The bland days are over... So when you dress your sun bunnies, mix and match our bright and cheery designs for an outfit that's as spunky as they are.

Dress and purse (far left): McCall's Pattern #6730 plus rickrack

Polka dot pants (left): McCall's Pattern #6642 plus pink chiffon trim and a rosette

Shirt and pants (below): Simplicity Pattern #2171

Yellow polka dress (lower left): Simplicity Pattern #1921

↑ PEP TALK

Peplum, that is—it might be our favorite ruffle interpretation. This just-for-tots jacket (McCall's Pattern #6597) features dark and light florals, and even the buttons are blooming!

← DAISY BABY

This cap-sleeved beauty belongs with the blooms. By pairing a bright paisley pattern with playful cheetah and then adding some ivory tulle trim, we've created our very own little ray of sunshine from Simplicity Pattern #1921.

→ RUFFLED DUFF

When your superstar tries this doubly darling dress-and-bloomer pair, she just might insist on wearing it to sleep... and to bath time... and in the winter, too. We made it with Simplicity Pattern #1921 and doubled up the ruffles on the sleeves and tushie.

PARK IT

Step 1: Don a light, flowy dress like the one you see here—from McCall's Pattern #6731.

Step 2: Have a heavenly afternoon in the park.

Tip: We used patchwork fabric for parts of the pattern and the tie.

← HELLO, CHEVRON!

We're so glad you're back. And to celebrate, we've made some spunky summer shorts to pair with a chiffon-adorned tank from McCall's Pattern #6642.

→ OH, GEE!

Try an ogee-inspired tunic for a style that's one part pop art, one part disco, and one part Girls Just Wanna Have Fun. To make it, we added ruffy chiffon trim to Simplicity Pattern #1704.

MOMMY AND ME

Everyone knows that moms make the best playmates. These picnic-ready, houndstooth get-ups will show the world the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. For the girl's dress, we used McCall's Pattern #6389. And for the grown-up version, we used Simplicity Pattern #2447.

↑ PINNING PRETTY

For a brooch-fully beautiful touch, we created our own pins by cutting the blooms from our rosette trim, adhering them in a flower shape onto a small felt piece, and then gluing a pin back to the felt.

BOHO BABE

For a light and carefree look, try this pattern-blocked tunic from McCall's Pattern #6735. Because there's no reason you shouldn't pair every fun and funky fabric in sight!

HANGIN' OUT!

These made-for-baby outfits embrace forward florals and damask-inspired patterns. And with the added trims, they've got a boutique look.

Pink Outfit:
Simplicity
Pattern #2668

Bib: Simplicity
Pattern #2468

Floral Jumper:
Simplicity
Pattern #1701

← FISHERMAN FASHION

Our fresh new fabrics work for the fellas, too! Make some trendy trunks like these (McCall's Pattern #6099) for the little man.

→ SUCKER FOR SEER

We took a schoolgirl classic and added a bit of summer flavor with lace trim and a nearly nautical fabric. From Simplicity Pattern #1704.

BUG OUT

Let the little ones roll out the dough in these cute-as-a-button aprons! We used Simplicity Pattern #1954, plus some rosette trim and rickrack in varying sizes.
