

FLANNEL IS HERE TO STAY!

And it's making its presence known with a whole collection of adorable colors and prints. From stuff for their toes to stuff for their toy boxes, we have project ideas for everybody in the family.

POCKET: MCCALL'S PATTERN #3189

← POCKET WATCH Put a little love in a so-so tank top with the addition of a handy pinstriped pocket. We used McCall's Pattern #3189 to make the pocket (and the pants on the cover too). The embroidered iron-on letters are sold in the Wearables Department.

SHOES: SIMPLICITY PATTERN #2278

↑ MEOW MIX You don't have to be a kid to believe this famous kitty is the cat's meow. To join the craze, try slipping your paws into cozy flannel lounge shoes made with Simplicity Pattern #2278 or McCall's #4123 for the neck pillow.

FLIP FOR FLANNEL

It's an always-been-there fabric, but it's got a fresh new look. We're talking about irresistible prints, from sweet to sophisticated. We're talking about trendy colors, from bold to mellow. We're talking about the soft, comfy, make-you-happy feel of flannel! And we'll tell you a secret: it isn't just for clothes.

BASKET: SIMPLICITY PATTERN #3776

↑ WHAT'S IN STORE Need a soft spot for stray toys or spare blankies? A cushy flannel catch-all—we used a whole slew of cutie pie prints for ours—should do the trick. Follow Simplicity Pattern #3776 to make a set of three graduated sizes.

← READY TO ROBE What's perfect for a stay-at-home and count-your-toes kind of day? A purr-fectly adorable flannel robe in an irresistible kitten print. You can have your favorite little lady kitty-clad in no time with some help from Simplicity Pattern #1946. It features a look for every member of the family.

→ SCENE IT ALL Flannel sticks to flannel. That's why this no-fuss, doubles-as-décor play center works so well. To make it, cover foam board with flannel, and place it in a coordinating frame. Then cut out and piece together the shapes of your choice. Use fusible web to adhere another piece of flannel (cut to the same silhouette) to the back of each shape for stability. Important: Always follow the manufacturer's instructions when using fusible web.

LOUNGEWEAR: SIMPLICITY PATTERN #3935

→ CARRY ON When it comes to accessories for your favorite little cuddler, you want soft, easy, functional, and just plain adorable. Oh, that's definitely a job for flannel. To make this roomy diaper bag, choose three precious flannel prints—and then cozy up to Simplicity Pattern #1824.

CITY SLICKER

Here's an all-boy version of our scenic-wonder play center (see reverse panel), featuring the cutest cloud-pattern flannel this side of Metropolis. Hang the cityscape at your kiddo's eye level, and watch him go to town...superhero town.

BURP CLOTH: SIMPLICITY PATTERN #6478

MONSTER MASHUP

We followed McCall's Pattern #6411 to create this make-you-grin monster appliqué. But instead of creating a full-size pillow sham as the pattern indicates, we made a basic cover for a 12" x 16" pillow form. And hey—the big guy seems right at home!

McCall's Pattern #3597 also includes instructions for four more adorable critters.

PONY: MCCALL'S PATTERN #35973

PONY UP Flannel and cuddles go together like cookies and milk. And that means this cozy fabric is a natural choice for sew-'em-at-home stuffed animals. We chose a happy star print for our sweet little show pony.

CAPE, MASK AND STAR APPLIQUÉS:
MCCALL'S PATTERN #6626

I NEED A HERO Man of steel, meet flannel! We strayed a little from the McCall's cape pattern by adding a homemade comic-book-style appliqué and loads of shiny sequin trim. And we embellished (belt and star appliqués) on an off-the-shelf shirt to round out the outfit.
