WITH LOVE

Here's some sweet news: Hobby Lobby and Valentine's Day were made for each other. So, when it comes to crafts that make your heart go thump, we've got you covered! Think decorations, card kits, oodles of lovey-dovey embellishments and more. Gift boxes: Paper maché boxes embellished with paint, glitter, ribbon, stickers and a puffy heart ornament.

SAY CHEESE ≧

Add some props to your heart day photo ops with our easy-as-it-gets craft kit—just tape the cutouts to the sticks and smile for the camera! And here's a display idea: Decorate a paper maché heart box, then use a craft knife to carve some holes in one side.

≧ BRING ME FLOWERS

This pretty make-your-own-bouquet kit comes with everything but adhesive. Just follow the instructions in the package, and then present your squeeze with a sweet handmade gift. Oh boy, love is fixin' to bloom!

SWEET NOTHINGS ≧

Just a little token. Sometimes that's all it takes to show 'em how you feel. So we're thinking heartfelt ornaments. Just choose your favorite—we have lots of lovable looks—and embellish as desired.

≧ STUCK ON YOU

Say, "I love you" with a cheeky metal message center. Just handwrite the sentiment on the sign and glue on the mustache clips. Hanger: We swapped the ribbon that came with the sign for one with a mustache print.

CLASS ACT

How can you bring some extra happy to a homeroom heart day party? With a cutie pie collection of handmade decorations, favors and Valentine boxes. We have everything you need to shower your favorite little ones with love—and they can help with the crafting too!

1 OWL BE YOURS

A word to the wise: owls love Valentine's Day. So this guy's a natural choice for a make-it-yourself card box. This kit comes with all the owl-ish embellishments. Just adhere them to the box of your choice.

2 BE MY MONSTER

He might look a little scary, but he's a sucker for hearts, candy and valentines. So put him on a box—we carry one that will fit him—and watch those cute little cards roll in. Just be careful of the teeth.

3 HEAR ME RAWR

Kids love dinosaurs, so you can't miss with a dino-themed Valentine box. He's a kit, which means you'll have almost everything you need to make him in one package. Supplies to buy: box and adhesive.

« SIGN ME UP

Know what's great about our Valentine's Day crafts? You can craft them a little or craft them a lot. We went for the latter with this trendy chalkboard sign. We put it on a handmade heart-shaped wreath decked out with glitzy deco mesh. You'll find the wreath base, mesh and ribbon with the rest of our seasonal Valentine's supplies.

HAVE A HEART ≡

Valentine's Day is all about sharing your heart. So we suggest handing it over in the form of a sweet heart-shaped ornament. You can personalize this one by writing on the chalkboard.

≡ SIGN LANGUAGE

If you want to show your valentine a sign of your devotion, an actual sign is a great way to go. We decked this one with a collection of puffy stickers. Yep, it was that easy—and it's that cute!

SACK IT TO ME

You can turn a whole classroom of kiddos loose on this easy-to-do project. Give them all a blank sack, and let them go to town with our cute-as-can-be embellishments. Many pieces are self-adhesive—and the rest go on with a little dab of glue.

MY TREAT

Let's just say it: You can't do Valentine's Day without candy. And really, who would want to? We'll help you give a nod to the yummy side of the loviest, doviest day of the year with these sweet-as-sugar valentines. Try a candy bar paper wrap—all you add is the chocolate bar— or go with a heart-shaped card with a slot for the lollipop of your choice. Oh my, the yum!
