Just a Touch

To achieve a down-to-earth contemporary casual style, choose a warm, cozy color palette—like deep browns and pops of turquoise.

Design Tip: In any comfy living space, pillows—in various colors and patterns—are a must.

» Repeat Showing

In this mad-for-mod space, a collection of sleek round mirrors opens up the room and creates instant drama.

Design Tip: Use different sizes and stagger the heights for an applause-worthy look.

« A Rug's Life

For an Old World-style study, decorate with deep, rich colors—think brown, burgundy and forest green—and ceramic and wrought iron accents.

Design Tip: Lend warmth and softness to hardwood floors with an area rug whose colors complement the room's décor.

Fleur de Me

When you want a cottage-chic look, choose pretty florals, bits of lace and a soft color palette.

Design Tip: Use fabric trims (see ours on the sofa and curtains) to turn store-bought or flea market finds into totally you creations.

1. Trend for Yourself In search of sleek and modern bedroom décor? When you stick with bold pops of color (like mustard yellow against cool gray), you can't go wrong. Design Tip: Choose shades of the same colors, and you can mix and match patterns, like we did with the pillows.

2. Room with a Flue Give your tween princess an aww-inspiring retreat with classic Parisian colors (pink and black, of course) and accessories (like an Eiffel Tower lamp). Design Tip: Whip up a fabulous cork headboard that does double duty as wall décor and command center.

3. Then and Now To give a room interest and depth, try mixing the old with the new. This antique style wall-art-as-headboard makes a beautiful focal point, while the colorful pillows add richness. Design Tip: For an easy-breezy feel that won't overpower, stick with neutrals for large items (like furniture) and bold colors for the accents.

« Dare to Be Divine
 Gorgeous. Glamorous. Grand. When you want all that and more, you want perfectly imperfect mercury glass-inspired accessories. Arrange a few pieces on the mantel, in the guest bedroom or on your holiday table, and you've got wow factor style in minutes.

» Quick Mix

We've all got knickknacks and trinkets hidden away in boxes, right? Well, it's time to let those curiosities grab the spotlight. The key is to group functional pieces like clocks and candles with pretties like frames and figurines in an asymmetrical arrangement. The result is effortlessly stunning.
