how to make a cozy campsite under glass

1. Get ready to make a scene! This cutie-pie campsite comes together with hardly any effort. Begin by placing river rocks in a simple glass jar. Then layer sheet moss over the rocks...a few dabs of hot glue will secure moss.

3. Now, create a faux campfire with miniature logs and folds of orange tissue paper. Place inside the jar, securing with hot glue.

2. Next, using dowel rods, construct a simple tent frame and cover frame with a scrap piece of sturdy canvas. Place tent inside the jar, securing bottom of tent to moss with hot glue.

4. Finally, add accessories—like woodland trees, rustic cookware, and a quintessential red lantern.
