

made in the shade
 This lampshade will light up any room! We used the existing shade as a pattern, measuring and cutting panels of bright, colorful felt. A fuzzy-wuzzy birdie and a border of hand-cut felt posies completed the design. What a bright addition to your workspace!

sitting pretty
 Where's the best seat in the house? It's got to be in your craft room! Transform an ordinary office chair with vibrant, versatile felt! This simple chair cover features solid and patterned felt, cut to size and pieced together (simple cotton fabric was used for the skirt).
Tip: Since the edges don't need finishing, felt is perfect for cute 3D appliqué.

square deal
 You know a winning weave when you see it. That's why you'll love these felt-covered crates that are so much fun to make and are functional too! We wove oodles of colorful felt strips into large square panels and applied them to the wooden crates using sheets of double-sided adhesive. Then, we used more felt strips to cover the corners. Voilà! One-of-a-kind storage!

wear with flair
 What could be better to tackle a crafty task than a sassy little apron? From the dainty ruffle, to the appliquéd pocket, to the sweet striped band, every inch of this whimsical wearable is sewn from squares of fun and fabulous felt! Just check out that adorable cheetah print!

stacked up
 Our sunny, funny felt is great for jewelry too! This piece features a colorful stack of bright felt circles. Strung together on jewelry thread and attached to a simple silver chain, they make the ultimate chunky, funky fashion statement.

It's Fun. It's Fresh. It's Felt!
They're cute, they're kitschy, and they're perfect for your craft room!
 Make a collection of sweet but functional décor using soft, versatile felt squares.

pick a pocket

Craft a quick fix for cluttered supplies. It's easy with colorful, versatile felt!

This organizer features rectangles of stiff felt, held together with grommets and split rings. We added felt pockets for a punch of color and a place to stash all your stuff. Sew organized!

going in circles

Project ideas giving you the run-around? Try your hand at circular design! Cut oodles of circles from our vibrant felt squares, stitch around outside for contrast and add to a plain jane pillow. Stitch together any leftover circles to make a festively funky garland.

« cut a rug...literally

This patchwork piece is perfect for your craft room. It's a rectangle of linen fabric, surrounded by a border of cute and quirky felt! We simply patched the pieces together and secured to linen with fabric glue. Tip: Embroider crafty words onto some of the felt pieces for fun and interest.

sew sweet »

Keep your sewing machine spotless with a cover made of felt and cotton squares. Sew together to make a colorful patchwork and embroider or appliqué as you wish! The back is lined with cotton, while ribbon ties hold it all in place.

Your craft room décor should never be a chore. Simple, versatile, colorful felt squares are perfect for projects such as a cheery chair cover, nifty notion holder, or a fun and quirky patchwork rug!

neat as a pin

We've got a soft spot for pin cushions! It's made from 3" x 3" squares of cheery yellow felt. Embellished with a sweetly embroidered patch (scissors and heart, on white felt), it's anything but sew-sew.
