

≈ love notes

We've got a crush on this Valentine's Day photo box. It's got plenty of heart with textured paper, self-adhesive gemstones, and a collection of glittery epoxy stickers.

TURN BOXES INTO SEASONAL SENSATIONS!

≈ creative valentine boxes... This little guy loves valentines—it's easy to see! He's built with cute ribbon, textured cardstock, sparkly gemstones, and a pair of quirky bottlecaps.

» first aid kit

Creativity to the rescue! This cute first aid kit is embellished with polka-dot paper, crinkly ribbon, chipboard alpha stickers, and more.

≈ give a gift...

This fancy gift box is all about creative use of paper. We used double-sided adhesive to glue printed papers back to back before cutting them by hand with decorative edge scissors and curling them as shown. The look is completed with ribbon, craft wire, silk flowers, and more.

« puppet show

This project gives "toy box" a whole new meaning. Cut out the top and bottom of a photo box for an instant puppet show! But don't stop there. Add colorful papers inside and out—we used bright solids, mixed with a variety of cutie-pie coordinating prints. Then, finish with an eyelet lace "curtain". Now, on with the show!

WE'RE THINKING OUTSIDE THE PHOTO BOX!
