

top drawer It's cork in the kitchen! Neaten up a drab old drawer with some handy rolled cork! Simply measure, cut and press into place, securing with double-sided adhesive. Now you've got a cushy, place to tuck away the tools of the trade. And it's water absorbent too!

coast is clear Stack up our ready-cut coaster rounds (we used two rounds per coaster) for this posh but practical project. Adhere the rounds with double-sided adhesive. Then, use stencils and coordinating colors of acrylic paint to create the distinctive design.

open door It's time to show everybody the door...of your cute, cork-covered cabinet! This piece features our versatile rolled cork, held in place with double-sided adhesive. We added dressy detail with an elegant stencil, acrylic paint, and a craft sponge. It's custom cabinetry with the practicality of cork!

chart topper For wall-worthy organization... you can't do better than cork! This imaginative "to do" chart features a 24" x 36" cork panel. We used stencils, acrylic paint, and chipboard letters (available in the Scrapbooking Department) to create the cheery, columned design. Then, we popped it into a simple frame!

modern memo This modern memo board goes to show that there's nothing you can't cover with cork! The base is metal wall art, available in the Home Accents Department. We used cork sheets, cut to size and colored with acrylic paint, to piece together the contemporary design. Love the pins? They're thumbtacks, decorated with self-adhesive scrapbooking embellishments.

Get Cute With Cork!
Rolls and tiles and panels...oh my! We've got cork to cover a houseful of crafty, organizational décor.

CORK IS fun

call it a day It's a live-in, play-in, sleep-in space that calls for organization that's totally functional...but utterly cute! Try day-of-the-week corkboards that double as quirky décor. They're made with cork tiles, pretty gathered fabric glued along the edge, and bold chipboard letters (available in the Scrapbooking Department). →

Craft quirky décor with an organizational edge. It's easy with cork... just look at these project ideas!

light work These cylinder-shaped lampshades got a quirky lift from a covering of versatile rolled cork. We measured the cork to fit the shades. Then, we pressed it into place using ordinary hot glue. Talk about a "notable" project! So fun!

cork corner No space is a waste when it's decked from the walls to the furniture with fun, functional, fabulous cork! We've got everything you need to push your pin into the project at hand—that means cork rolls, cork tiles, cork panels and more!

← make the bed Boring headboard? Try cork instead! We covered a hand-me-down wooden headboard with rolled cork. Hot glue and double-sided adhesive held it firmly in place. Love the coordinating pushpins? They're hand-covered fabric buttons that we glued to ordinary thumbtacks.
