chair flair » Lilies, lavender and layers of tulle are pretty on this dramatic chair cover. But gorgeous dangling gemstone drops were the perfect finishing touch.

behind the curtain » Mixed with silk lilies, gemstone garlands give subtle shine to a cascading floral curtain. The flowers were strung using an embroidery needle and invisible thread. Each blossom was spaced with a clear bead before both floral strands and gemstone garlands were tied to a sturdy dowel rod. What a beautiful backdrop for the bride and groom!

chandelicious « Elegant drama is on display with a stunning crystal chandelier. Simply stack a pair of floral foam wreaths, securing them together with hot glue and floral pins. Then use more floral pins to secure strands of crystal garland to the wreaths. To finish, add lush blossoms all around wreaths to hide your work.

Fairytale Finesse

For the bride who wants a party fit for a princess... pair luxurious crystals with pinks, greens and creamy, dreamy whites. From the chairs, to the centerpiece, to the breathtaking chandelier, this blooming reception table brings sparkling fairytale style to the forefront.

bow bright « Lilies, hydrangea blossoms and lux satin were pretty on this dramatic chair cover. But gorgeous gemstone drops were the perfect finishing touch.
