

i do dazzles... Here's to glasses that are quirky, friendly and absolutely fabulous! They're fun and affordable when you paint them yourself! You'll need plastic stemware, enamel paints, and a few quick embellishments—like ribbon and delicate pearl trim. For keepsake-quality toasting flutes, use this same technique, but on glass.

Whether it's disposable plasticware or quality glassware, paint a tableful of one-of-a-kind partyware, perfect for any coordinated affair.

girl's night... For a girls' night gone chic, try plastic partyware paired with our fun and fabulous enamels! It's an affordable way to host a perfectly coordinated affair. To recreate our hip zebra-print design, place printed paper on the inside (for bowls) or on the underside (for stemware) of the plastic. Then, trace and paint!

making lemons... Embellish off-the-shelf glassware with loads of tutti-frutti charm. It's fun with our bright, durable enamels! We painted the peppy produce and charming flowers on the outside of the glass in order to keep the paint from touching the lemonade. Tip: The coordinating tumblers shown here are actually durable, disposable plastic. So affordable!

puppy love... Poochware with a punch? You've got it with a pretty, painted treat jar! We used enamel paint to create this simple but stunning design. Love the lively lettering? We chose to freehand a favorite font, but you could create your own look using a stencil.

tweet tea... Want to tweet your guests to some soothing refreshments? Do so with a beautiful, hand-painted glass decanter...and classic tumblers to match! To craft these pieces, we drew guidelines with a washable marker—the ink wiped away easily at the completion of the project. Then, we painted this darling design around the outside of the glass. Pretty, functional and one-of-a-kind!
