sunset serenade

Inspired by the color palette of a vivid sunset, this bold mix of hues and blossoms is the perfect companion for the more adventurous bride-to-be.

ring around the roses

Perfect little rows of color topped-off with an oversized blossom, keeps this cluster-style bouquet perfectly in sync.

modern maneuver

From cover: Up-to-the-minute style calls for exotic blooms and punchy-colored blossoms unexpectedly paired with a light-hearted, polka-dotted ribbon.

just gathered

Capture the romance of a garden setting with a beautiful, hand-tied bouquet. Less structured than contemporary arrangements, its “just gathered” look includes loosely-arranged blossoms, full-length stems and is best-suited for outdoor venues.

branching out

An eclectic mix of textures – from delicate roses to twiggy branches – give this bouquet an informal, nature-inspired point of view.

Classic calla lilies with their ultra-modern-shaped blooms and long, graceful stems are ideally suited for more simple and sleek arm bouquets.

classic red

Tradition meets a modern sensibility in this sheath-style arrangement.

Classic long-stemmed roses are nestled with trendy palm fronds and tied-off with a loopy bow and trailing satin ribbon.

A beautiful choice for the bride who is drawn to the romance of classic red.
