

flashy foam

A plain foam blank became a one-of-a-kind ornament. All it needed was silver acrylic paint for a base and a perfect whirl of pink and green sequins, secured with adhesive dots.

swirly bulb

Recycle old-fashioned ball ornaments with a shiny new spin. It's simple with adhesive dots, assortment of sequins and basic patterns. Try stripes, swirls, even this retro wave design.

silver shimmer

A petite framed canvas and sequins (left) becomes a glitzy monogrammed ornament or a perfect stocking stuffer, while the larger canvas becomes Christmas art. Create this striking piece by spelling out "NOEL" in sequins and adding shimmering snowflakes. Everything is held in place with no-fuss adhesive dots.

shiny stocking

This handmade felt stocking (McCall's pattern #2991) became an instant decorative heirloom and the addition of twinkling sequin embellishments gave it a decidedly vintage appeal. The shiny design was sewn to the fabric for this look, but simple fabric glue could hold the sequins in place in a pinch.

green gleam

This festive canvas glows with more than just twinkling charm. A joyful verse and jolly ornaments were drawn in and simply covered with sparkling sequins.

glittery garland

Festive fabric and fuzzy white felt, layered and stiffened with fusible web (following the manufacturer's directions), became this darling Christmas garland. The piece features metal home décor letters that were covered with beautiful pink and green sequins, then sewn into place on the banner. Add eyelets, coordinating ribbon, and some festive pompom trim to complete the look.

Sprinkle a little twinkle or sew on some shine! Glimmery sequins add festive sparkle to any holiday décor.

razzle-dazzle headband »

From head to toe, go full-out festive with showy, glowy sequins. Make this sparkly head piece by cutting petal-shaped felt pieces and applying oodles of sequins—either sew on or apply with fabric glue. Then arrange petals to resemble a flower and secure to a pre-made headband.

jingle bell rocks »

This ring is the thing to bring on the bling! And so is the matching necklace! They're both made using plain foam spheres. Painted with pink and adorned with seed beads and pink iridescent sequins (held in place with simple sequin pins), your holiday ensemble will make a glowing statement.

» glimmer glamour

Add a glimmer of shimmer to dresses, blouses, sweaters and more. Our high-quality sequins are 100% polyester, so they won't fade or crack in the wash cycle—making them perfect to embellish clothing and textiles. Tip: If you plan to wash and wear, forgo adhesives and secure your sequins with needle and thread.

and so it glows...

All aglow with twinkling sequins, we've dashed a glimmer on the mantle and a shimmer on the wall. Bestow that glow on everything—from clothes, gifts, home accents—and celebrate a bright and Merry Christmas.

» topiary flair

This elegant Christmas topiary (above) gets rave reviews. It features round and star-shaped sequins, secured to a trio of foam spheres slid onto a ribbon-wrapped dowel rod. Two more topiaries (above left) sparkle with a decidedly snowy glow. They're adorned with rows and rows of pearly white sequins. Dazzling!

« time to shine

Even this tiny mantle clock got a glittery holiday boost. Its festive sequin border was adhered with petite adhesive dots.

it glows to show

An ornate iron candle holder was transformed for the holidays with pretty pink sequins. Adhesive dots hold the sequins in place along the scrolly pattern of the metal.
