Craft kitchen gear that's steeped in dainty vintage-style appeal. It's easy with our ready-to-embellish kitchen towels and our pretty embroidery iron-ons. The design shown is part of a pack that contains multiple teapot patterns. That means it's a cinch to stitch an entire set! Tip: Iron-on patterns transfer more easily to warm fabric. Use your iron to heat the towel right before applying the design.

Any bib benefits from a pair of little birdies. Especially when the bib is part of a sweet, retro-style apron (sold fully assembled and ready-to-embellish). The embroidered design came from a handy iron-on. Simply follow the manufacturer's directions to apply the pattern to the fabric. Then, stitch over the marks. So easy... so cute!

hoppily ever after Going green is an everyday affair... at least it is when it comes to these adorable day-of-the-week froggy. The charmingly retro designs come from iron-ons. We applied the patterns to a set of soft flour sack dish towels and hopped up the edges with a blanket stitch in coordinating thread.

≈ what's cookin'? Fresh, foodie and oh-so-cute! On a cheery towel or a quirky apron, these pieces are on the menu for any stylishly vintage décor. Both patterns come from our wide selection of iron-ons. For a similar look, follow the manufacturer's directions to transfer designs to any of our ready-to-go accessories (retro apron and soft flour sack towel are both sold near the embroidery supplies). Then iron, stitch and go!

≈ cute coverup Want a project that hits the spot? Kiss your favorite cook with a cute, handmade apron! This one features a spicy iron-on design. Browse our extensive Needlework Department for even more food-friendly patterns. They come as iron-ons or as ready-to-go kits. Tip: Notice the red border on this piece? We added a simple running stitch to an off-the-shelf apron. Easy, instant pizzazz!

west is best Cowboys and cowgirls will go crazy over this set of Wild West tea towels. Packed with a wagonful of charming appeal, these retro-style linens feature iron-ons with a rustic feel. All supplies are available in our Needlework Department. Yee-haw y'all!

« tea for two Here's a merrily matched set for him and her. These cheery towels were easy to make with the help of a pair of teatime embroidery iron-ons. The "Mr. and Mrs." monograms are iron-on patterns too! To make your own, follow the manufacturer's directions to transfer the designs. Then, simply stitch over the marks. Sew, sew simple!

≈ an eye for an eye "Easy on the eyes" is as simple as can be! That's because this embellishment is a simple, iron-on design. The look was transferred to an ordinary flour sack towel and stitched in a blink of an eye! Look to our extensive Needlework Department for this pattern and more. We even offer ready-to-go kits!
